6. [REDACTED] Met with Mr. John Garrity, House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee staff, who told me that briefings by the Secretary of Defense (who will be followed by various military commanders) are tentatively scheduled to begin on 4 March. The full Committee is expected to hold an organizational meeting later this week.

7. [REDACTED] Met with Mr. Herbert Roback, Staff Administrator, Military Operations Subcommittee, Committee on Government Operations, who told me that the Chairman, Representative Chet Holifield (D., Calif.), is considering reassignment of Committee jurisdiction of the Central Intelligence Agency to his own Subcommittee, the Military Operations Subcommittee, from the Moss Subcommittee on Government Information and Foreign Operations. Mr. Roback indicated that there is no indication that the Chairman intends to place demands on the Agency for briefings or otherwise. He noted that Mr. Holifield is completely well disposed toward the Agency and its activities, and in the past has kept up-to-date on the Agency through his membership in the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy. Mr. Roback thanked me for coming by and said he would keep me posted as the situation develops.
